

Katharina Ziemkus

Katharina is a creative and director with a passion for meaningful narratives and beautiful visuals giving brands and people a platform to tell their stories.

After studying Communication Design and while working for different agencies, she found her purpose in being on set and creating magic with a team. Working for clients such as YSL, Tiffany&Co, Google, Dr. Hauschka, adidas, and many more.

Her work is defined by mixing artistic visual worlds with on-brand storytelling an audience is equally inspired by and can identify with.
